

Fe ent A ked Q e /i n

Should I get a COVID-19 vaccine?

`^L`"pL`$BBs-L%%\NL`\',`"pL\FE,^y %NL

di erent races, ethnicit es, and health backgrounds including those with kidney disease.

• While no vaccine is 100% e ect ve at prevent/ng COVID-19, vaccines provide the best protect on against serious illness and death/from COVID-19.

• You can get a Pfizer COVID-19 booster vaccine at your DaVita center or in your community.

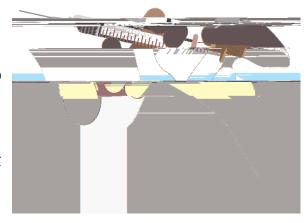

Which vaccine should I get? Do I have a choice?

 Talk with your doctor if you have specific quest ons about which vaccine is best for you.

• The Pfizer and Moderna vaccines require 2 doses to unt I 2 weeks af er the final dose.

 Booster doses provide addit onal protect on against get _ng a booster shot when you are eligible.

- : p>"%HLLQLB"%B>~"L".LB"> L^~LBL$$-n"pL"$>BBs-L ~ >~"s"n$$L"} L~, 9"/
- The vaccines may result in mild side e ects, such as pain at the inject on site and feeling t red, which are normal and expected with vaccinat on.

Yes, the vaccines are safe for pat ents with these health conditions and for dialysis pat ents like you. Because your body is less capable of building immunity, we recommend

- ž, £~, ~n~H, L%., "LB , ~~N, } ~"pL~$>BBs-L~>%~~
- While we don't know exactly how long COVID-19 vaccine protect on lasts, we know that protect on can decrease over t me. This is why we recommend staying up-to-date with your COVID-19 vaccinat ons to keep your immunity against COVID-19 strong.
- `^L`A,,%"L^%";pL`%;}L`>%L¤$%~n``,9"/ `$>BBs-L%

addit onal protect on against the recent Omicrom variants of COVID-19. An updated booster will help your immune system fight o a wider variety of variants.

- No, you are allowed to "mix and match" vaccine type.

receive as a booster, even if it is di erent than why

